

Strategic Intentions of State and Territory Police Forces

Australian Capital Territory

To keep the peace and preserve public safety within the ACT. We strive to deliver a sustainable, professional, innovative, flexible and effective policing response to the increasingly complex borderless criminal environment.

New South Wales

To work with the community to reduce violence, crime and fear.

Northern Territory

To serve and protect.

Queensland

To work tirelessly to ensure the safety and security of the community.

South Australia

To provide a diverse range of services to the community and has the ultimate objective of ensuring that South Australia remains a safe place to live, visit and do business.

Tasmania

To provide effective policing, fire and emergency management services.

Victoria

To serve the Victorian community and uphold the law so as to promote a safe, secure and orderly society.

Western Australia

To provide trusted and valued policing for Western Australia.